BBC - London Underground Map

The Tube map (sometimes called the London Underground Map or the TFL Services Map) is a schematic transport map of the lines, stations and services of the London Underground, known colloquially as "the Tube", hence the map's name. The first schematic Tube map was designed by Harry Beck in 1931. Since then, it has been expanded to include more of London's public transport systems, including the ...

Readers of Mapping London, and Londoners in general, will be very familiar with the striking straight lines of the Tube Map. But you probably won't have seen this map before, which employs the same kind of schematisation to show London's now completely vanished tram and trolleybus network (there is a tram in south London now, but it wasn't around when this map was created).
